

Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst
German Academic Exchange Service

About DAAD ...

- the world's largest funding organization for international exchange.
- the independent organization of German higher education institutions and their student bodies, devoted to internationalizing the academic system.
- an intermediary between higher education systems with a worldwide network of 17 regional offices and 50 Information centers (ICs) in more than 60 countries, approximately 500 DAAD-Lecturers and language assistants
- has, since 1925, funded around two million scholars in Germany and abroad
- a German institution in Europe, which contributes as National Agency for EU Higher Education Cooperation to shaping the European Higher Education and Research Area.

Change by exchange...

... is the motto of the DAAD. Exchange promotes understanding between countries and individuals and helps secure peace.

DAAD Regional Office Nairobi

The DAAD representation in the Kenyan capital Nairobi started as a small adjunct office in September 1973. Today it is a fully-fledged DAAD Regional Office for East-Africa (Kenya, Burundi, Tanzania, Uganda, Rwanda, South Sudan and Ethiopia) providing information about DAAD's full range of academic programmes and offers consultation on study and research opportunities and funding possibilities for individual scholars in Germany and the East Africa region, for university collaboration between German and East African universities and research institutes, and for capacity building for university staff members at East African universities.

Research in Germany

Germany is a top destination for PhD students, postdocs, and senior scientists. The website "Research in Germany" helps you to find your way to Germany, to seek for PhD positions, research jobs or funding opportunities. It describes the German research landscape and provides you with contacts to institutions and networks.

Study programmes at German universities

The Higher Education Compass is an information portal of the German Rectors' Conference (Hochschulrektorenkonferenz – HRK) that publishes information from state and state-recognised German universities about their study and doctorate opportunities and international partnerships. All information found in the Higher Education Compass is authorised by the universities and is updated by employees at the universities themselves.

International Programmes in Germany 2021/2022

One of the most distinctive features of international degree programmes is that they involve a significant amount of compulsory lectures and courses taught in a foreign language, but the language itself is not the focus of academic study for the programme. Other characteristics of these programmes are the award of an international dual degree in conjunction with a higher education institution abroad, or a compulsory period of study or work in another country for a minimum of two semesters.
