NOTES TO THE CALENDAR

- [1] Induction/Orientation for New Graduate Students (Masters and Postgraduate Diplomas programmes) shall be conducted for not more than two (2) days of reporting. Only Faculties and Selected University Officers will be involved in this activity.
- [2] Lectures shall be conducted using “Blended learning” approach (Face-to-Face and Online) where applicable inline with the programme delivery modes and the approved teaching timetable/s.
- [3] School Practice, in particular, will be conducted in line with the Schools’ Term Calendar. However, caution must be exercised in the scheduling so as to fit within the planned University-wide Academic Calendar.
- [4] Stakeholders are implored to adhere to the Academic Calendar; and any alteration must be made in consultation and with the approval of the Academic Registrar.
- [5] Exception to (4) above shall only be allowed/provided for In-Service programmes, where Teaching and Learning (Face-to Face), Semester Examination, and School Practice are dependent on the National Schools’ Calendar.
- [6] Programme specific details shall be communicated by your respective Faculty/Departments.
